27 Mermaid Crescent, Port Macquarie

Modern, Chic Living

New refinements have been added to remodel, recreate and rejuvenate this fabulous centrally located property. Upon entry it is evident that the owners have had a vision to transform old to new using modern products such as tiles, easy care cladding, balustrading and aluminium crimsafe doors. The main living area boasts beautifully restored original cypress pine timber floors. To the left is a designer kitchen complete with glass splash backs and new appliances plus built in eatery overlooking the streetscape. A large elevated entertaining deck flows off this upstairs open plan area and from this vantage point, you can take in the pretty views across to the mountains. Both upstairs bedrooms are serviced by a stylish new bathroom whilst the third bedroom is downstairs. The garage is currently used as a workshop however there is side access and slab suitable for boat or caravan and tandem carport facilities. Raised vegetable gardens, garden shed, water tank, 6 x 250w solar panels and maintenance free north facing lawns complete this tidy package. Council Rates $2,160pa (approximately).
