15 Orana Drive, Lake Cathie

Just Once in a While.....

.....We offer a property like this. Prime elevated location offering a private estate like feeling being spread over two blocks covering 1,113m2 with dual street access and captivating ocean views. Walk across the road for a game of tennis or stroll 150 metres down the road for a morning surf or a walk along the golden sands of Middle Rock beach. Or maybe just enjoy sitting on the superb wrap around veranda and watch and listen to the waves breaking over the coastline.

This splendid residence is high set on the block to capture the ocean views and the beautiful north east summer breezes and comprises a great blend of formal and informal living and entertaining.

Right from the moment of stepping through the double front door and into the foyer which features split steps to the upper and lower levels the excitement of something different abounds. The central modern kitchen with all expected contemporary appliances and high gloss finish divides the formal combined lounge and dining from the mutual family room and casual meals area. For entertaining the livings all flow beautifully to the front wrap around deck and the family room likewise opens to the covered rear alfresco deck overlooking the stunning resort styled saltwater pool and surrounds.
